ABOUT Christopher Schultz

As a seasoned and interdisciplinary Art Director, Christopher Schultz possesses a wealth of knowledge and proficiency in his field. Specializing in film, visual effects, and 3D motion graphics, he has established a reputation for creating dynamic and impactful visual content for professional sports teams in the NFL, NBA, NHL, and MLS, such as the Warriors, Buccaneers, Seahawks, Ravens, 49ers, Timberwolves, Lightning, Devils, Inter Miami CF, and Charlotte FC.

With a discerning eye for detail, Christopher's commitment to expressive storytelling has played a key role in the success of globally recognized brands in the sports, music, and commercial industries. His contributions have been viewed by millions online and in sporting stadiums worldwide.

As a multi-faceted professional, Christopher is both directly responsible for executing client work, and for his leadership role as Triglass Productions' Marketing Director, orchestrating a wide range of marketing initiatives, including crafting strategic marketing plans, developing a strong online presence, and creating captivating content for the company's brand. Thanks to his efforts, Triglass Productions has seen a massive growth in its online reach, with their social media following more than tripling in size and the company's branded content reaching millions of viewers across multiple platforms.

Throughout his 15-year career, Christopher has been recognized for his talents with numerous awards and accolades, including 6 Emmy wins, 6 Golden Matrix Awards, and multiple contest wins. This impressive professional track record is a testament to his dedication, talent, and passion for the art of visual storytelling, as well as his ability to create compelling and impactful visual content.
